

TENNESSEE DISABILITY COALITION - PRIVACY POLICY

Last Revised: [11/19/2021]

This Privacy Policy explains how the Tennessee Disability Coalition (the “TDC”, “we” or “us”) collects, uses, and discloses information about you when you access or use our websites and other online services that link to this Privacy Policy (collectively, “Services”), or otherwise interact with us.

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make any changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you by revising the “Last Revised” date at the top of this Privacy Policy and, in some cases, we may provide you with additional notice (such as by adding a statement to our website homepage or by sending you a notification). We encourage you to review this Privacy Policy whenever you access or use the Services or otherwise interact with us to make sure that you stay informed about our information practices and the choices available to you.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

SMS

We will not share data collected from SMS with third parties.

Information You Provide To Us

We collect information you provide directly to us. For example, we collect information when you make a donation, participate in any interactive areas or features of the Services, sign up to receive email updates or other notifications (such as text message alerts), use registration or assistance tools available through the Services, fill out a form, apply for a job or an internship, participate in a survey, contest or other promotion, communicate with us via third-party social media sites, or otherwise communicate with us. The types of information we may collect include your name, email address, postal address, phone number, and any other information you choose to provide.

- Log Information: We may collect information related to your access to and use of the Services, including the date and time of access, the IP address, the type of browser you use, your activity on the Services (such as access times, pages viewed, and search terms), and the device you use to access the Services. When you access the Services, we automatically collect certain information about your device.
- Device Information: We collect information about the computer or mobile device you use to access the Services, such as the hardware model, operating system and version, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information.
- Location Information: We may derive the approximate location of your device from your IP address.

- Information Collected by Cookies and Similar Tracking Technologies: We (and our service providers) use various technologies to collect information, including cookies and web beacons. Cookies are small data files stored on your hard drive or in device memory that, among other things, help us to improve the Services and your experience, see which areas or features of the Services are popular, and count visits to the Services. For more information about cookies and how to disable them, please see the YOUR CHOICES section of this Privacy Policy below. Web beacons are small electronic images that may be used on the Services or in emails and that help to deliver cookies, count visits to the Services, monitor user activity on the Services, and understand usage and campaign effectiveness.

Information We Collect From Other Sources

We may obtain information from other sources and combine it with information we collect through the Services. For example, if you sign up to host, advocate, or volunteer for an event associated with the TDC via a third-party website, such as FormAssembly or CQEngage, we will obtain certain information about you from the third party that operates that website.

HOW DO WE USE THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT?

We use information we collect for the following purposes:

- to provide, maintain, and improve the Services;
- to provide you with services, products, or information you request, and to send you related information, such as notifications and confirmations;
- to send you technical notices, updates, security alerts, and support and administrative messages;
- to respond to your emails, submissions, comments, questions, and requests, and to provide customer service;
- to request feedback, and to otherwise contact you about your use of the Services;
- to send you newsletters, and to otherwise provide you with news and information that we think will be of interest to you, such as sending you information to keep you informed about various campaigns, candidates, issues, events, resources, promotions, contests, products, and services;
- to help connect you with other supporters, and to solicit volunteers, donations, and support for the TDC and for candidates, issues, events, and organizations that we support;
- to remind you to send in your voter registration form and to vote, and to assist you in finding your voter registration information and polling location;
- to contact you if additional information is necessary under state and federal election laws or other applicable laws;
- to monitor and analyze trends, usage, and activities in connection with the Services;
- to serve advertisements, on the Services or on other websites or media, based on the information you provide and the actions you take while using the Services;
- to notify and contact survey, contest, or sweepstakes participants; and

- to carry out any other purpose for which the information was collected.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE SHARE WITH THIRD PARTIES?

We may share aggregated or de-identified information with third parties that cannot reasonably be used by such third parties to identify you:

- with vendors, consultants, and other service providers or volunteers who are engaged by or working with us and who need access to such information to carry out work or to perform services on our behalf;
- when you give us your consent to do so, including when we notify you on the Services that the information you provide will be shared in a particular manner and you provide such information;
- when we believe in good faith that we are lawfully authorized or required to do so or that doing so is reasonably necessary or appropriate to comply with applicable laws or legal processes or to respond to lawful requests, claims, or legal authorities, including responding to lawful subpoenas, warrants, or court orders;
- when we believe in good faith that doing so is reasonably necessary or appropriate to respond to claims or to protect the rights, property, or safety of the TDC, our users, our employees, our volunteers, copyright owners, third parties or the public, including to protect such parties from fraudulent, abusive, inappropriate, or unlawful activity or use of the Services; and

WHAT INFORMATION MAY BE SHARED IN CONNECTION WITH ONLINE PETITIONS?

When you sign an online petition, you understand that such petition is public information and that we may make the petition, including your name, city, state, and any comments you provided in connection therewith, publicly available. In addition, we may provide such petitions or compilations thereof to national, state, or local leaders or to the press.

WHAT INFORMATION MAY BE SHARED IN CONNECTION WITH SOCIAL SHARING FEATURES OF THE SERVICES?

The Services offer certain social sharing features and other integrated tools (such as the Facebook “Like” button), which let you share actions you take on the Services with other media. Your use of such features and tools enables the sharing of certain information with your friends or with the public, depending on the settings you establish with the third party that provides the social sharing features and other integrated tools. For more information about the purpose and scope of data collection and processing in connection with the social sharing features and other integrated tools, please review the privacy policies of the third parties that provide such features and tools.

OTHER WEBSITES LINKED TO OUR SERVICES

The Services may contain links to other websites. For example, the Services may link to a third-party website, such as PayPal, to enable donations. Any information you provide on websites that are operated by a third party and linked to the Services is provided directly to the third party that operates such website and is subject to that third party's privacy policy. This Privacy Policy does not apply to such websites, and we are not responsible for the information practices or policies of the third parties that operate such websites. Before providing information on any website that is operated by a third party and linked to the Services, we encourage you to review the privacy policy of the third party that operates such website and to learn more about the information practices and policies of such third party.

ADVERTISING AND ANALYTICS SERVICES PROVIDED BY OTHERS

We may allow others to provide analytics services and to serve advertisements on our behalf. These entities may use cookies, web beacons, device identifiers, and other technologies to collect information about your use of the Services and other websites, including your IP address, web browser, mobile network information, pages viewed, time spent on pages, links clicked, and conversion information. This information may be used by the TDC and others to, among other things, analyze and track data, determine the popularity of certain content, deliver advertising and content targeted to your interests, and better understand your online activity.

For more information about interest-based ads, or to opt out of having your web browsing information used for behavioral advertising purposes, please visit www.aboutads.info/choices.

In addition, your device may include a feature (such as "Limit Ad Tracking" on iOS or "Opt Out of Interest-Based Ads" or "Opt Out of Ads Personalization" on Android) that allows you to opt out of having information collected through certain device applications used for targeted advertising purposes.

YOUR CHOICES

Cookies

Most web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove or reject browser cookies. Please note that if you choose to remove or reject browser cookies, such removal or rejection could affect the availability and functionality of the Services.

Promotional Communications

You may "opt out" of receiving promotional communications (such as text messages, email updates, and newsletters) from the TDC by following the instructions in those communications. Please note that we may still send you other types of non-promotional communications, such as those about your use of the Services or any of your donations, transactions, or activities related to the Services.

QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact us at coalition@tndisability.org.