

CONSULTATION

Consultation is a support for educators and families caring for children with puzzling challenges. Consultants partner with adults to facilitate healthy growth and development for infants and young children.

Services may be focused on an individual child, a classroom, or a childcare program.

READY. SET. CONNECT!

Ready. Set. Connect! office hours are available by phone or video conference. This is a short-term, collaborative, problem solving approach to help you identify next steps for behavioral, social emotional, or developmental concerns.

FAMILY COACHING

Family Coaching is available to families who would like support in navigating challenging behaviors such as biting, screaming, or managing big feelings.

This service is designed to reduce family stress, promote appropriate behaviors, and teach children the skills needed for optimal development and school readiness.

Available in all 95 counties!

OUR PRIORITIES

Promote mental health and social emotional well-being

Reduce the use of suspension/expulsion - keeping children in the classroom

Increase school readiness and lifelong positive learning experiences

OUR IMPACT

How are services impacting educators and families?

"Thank you so much for the support! I cannot be more thrilled with how much progress that's been made in such a short period of time. It has been such a blessing."

- Parent

"The program itself helps to maintain a fresh outlook for challenging behaviors and gives teachers new ideas to help aide challenging behaviors."
