

Get Schooled on Concussions
Concussion
Return to Learn
Lesson Plan
for the Related Service Provider (Tier 2)

Authored by Karen McAvoy, PsyD
and Brenda Eagan-Johnson, EdD, CBIS

Table of Contents

Section 1: Universal “General Education”

Tier 1 Supports .....	1
Elementary School vs High School .....	3
How a Concussion Feels .....	4
Three Most Common Effects .....	5
Concussion = Energy Crisis .....	6
Mental Fatigue .....	7
Mental Fatigue Strategies .....	8
Symptom Wheel .....	9
Slowed Processing Speed Strategies .....	10
Biggest Mistake we see in RTL Plans Related to Slowed Processing Speed .....	11
Empty Grade Book .....	12
Difficulty Converting New Material Into Learning/Short-Term Memory Strategies .....	13
Biggest Mistake we see in RTL Plans Related to Short-Term Memory Problems .....	14
End of Semester (finals and grades) Formula – Acute Concussion .....	15
Fading Academic Adjustments .....	16
What to Do About ... Missed Instruction .....	17
What to Do About ... Work output: In-Class/Homework .....	18
What to Do About ... Tests .....	19
Academic Progress-Monitoring .....	20
Symptom Progress-Monitoring .....	21

Section 2: Factors that Affect Recovery

of the Concussion – Tier 2 Supports .....	22
Concussion Modifiers .....	22
Student Factors .....	23
Parent Factors .....	24
Teacher Factors .....	24
“Cognitive or Processing Orchestration” .....	24
Return to School vs Return to Learn .....	25
Failure to Return to School Complicates Return to Learn .....	26
Ascending Levels of Academic Support .....	27
Rehabilitation .....	28
Phases of Recovery .....	29
Finding the Possible Underlying Reasons Behind Protracted Recovery .....	30
When to Write a 504: Part 1 .....	31
When to Write a 504: Part 2 .....	32
How to Write a 504 Plan .....	33
What a 504 Plan is NOT .....	34
End of Semester (finals and grades) Formula – Protracted Concussion .....	35
Section 3: Tier 3 Supports .....	36
References .....	36
Authors .....	36
Resources .....	37

Color coding on Tier 1 Tip Sheets align with color coding in the Teacher Acute Concussion Tool (TACT)

We want to be responsive to the field’s needs. ✓ Kid Tested, 🍏 Teacher Approved
 If you have ideas for Tip Sheets, please let us know @ Karen@GetSchooledOnConcussions.com or Brenda@GetSchooledOnConcussions.com