Now, a better 9-1-1 service for people with disabilities.

Help 9-1-1 help you

Nashville Emergency Communications Center now offers a free, new service to improve 9-1-1 response. Once you're signed up, anytime you dial 9-1-1 the dispatcher will see a description of your disability, special rescue notes and your current location on-screen. Now EMS, police and firefighters can arrive on the scene 100% prepared to help you.

- Supported by existing 9-1-1 fees - free to register
- Brought to you by Nashville Emergency Communications Center
- 100% private and secure
